Letting Go

Letting Go By Christine

~~~

She opened her eyes and saw fear, He closed them again and wouldn't let it come near.

She opened her eyes and heard the cries, He closed them again to hide her from why.

She opened her hands and felt the pain, He closed them again to keep away her strain.

She opened her mouth and spoke of names, He closed it again and told her his love would remain.

She opened her heart to whatever came next, He closed it again he couldn't let her rest.

She closed herself up and slowly drifted away, He held her and wished her to open up again and stay.
